Hi! My name is Miguel Briones, and I am a self-published author and illustrator, and I am ready to bring my one-of-a-kind author's visit to your campus. My most recent publication Como Mi Padrino was released in June of 2022, and I am so excited to share it with you and your young readers. I am happy to say that Como Mi Padrino is under consideration for the Tomás Rivera award and is perfect for youth and adolescent learners who are working daily to navigate life's BIG FEELINGS.

As a former elementary school teacher, students just like yours were the main source of inspiration when I created this book. I am honored to share my inspirational and heartfelt story with you. Please see the attached information in my visit packet for details on the book, as well as what to expect from my visit. I'm looking forward to seeing you soon!

"The rapport Miguel created and the relationships he built were key to the success of his students. He encourages young learners to take chances."

- Megan Z. (Elementary Teacher)

”It has been a crazy year. The world lost La Reina Selena Quintanilla, Michael Jordan made his triumphant return to basketball, and I...was going...to middle school! That’s right, no more baby games for me...”

Follow Miguelito on his journey through adolescence, as he searches for empathy and compassion while trying to stay above negative influences and feelings of fear, anger and frustration. Como Mi Padrino is a coming-of-age story about a young Chicanito who finds meaning and direction in the world of music. When he is taken under the wing of a stranger named Eztli, Miguelito is introduced to electric guitars, punk rock, and radical acceptance.

Who is this visit for?

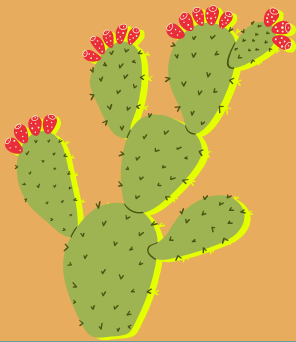

- Single Class
- Multi-Grade
- Book Clubs
- Multi-School

We will learn about:

- The importance of discussing feelings
- Recognizing, understanding and controlling our emotions
- The importance of Self-esteem and self-love
- Why finding your interest or passion is important
- Texas History

And More!

Just some of what we'll learn

Using a blend of humor, musical performance, and heartfelt and humanistic conversations, author Miguel Briones is sure to offer an author's visit unlike any other. Miguel's lighthearted approach and strategic questions will give way to meaningful dialogue on how to identify and navigate BIG feelings like Fear, Anxiety, Anger and Shame.

Students will leave with an understanding of how finding their purpose or passion leads to higher self-esteem and feelings of self-worth. They will also be given strategies to help them on their lifelong journey of identifying and managing their responses to BIG emotions before those emotions get the best of them.

"This book is for the juvenes who are navigating identifying, and making sense of big emotions"

A.C. (Parent/Reader)

What to expect from your visit

On the day of your event, I'll arrive at your school 1-hour before my first visit so I can set up. Each presentation is usually 1-hour. That includes a partial reading of the book, guided questions, live musical performances, and a Q&A session. Each daily visit consists of 3 class or grade level visits. I do ask for a short 15-minute break between visits to prep for the next presentation. Copies of the book along with PDFs containing your activity sheets will be sent out prior to my visit.
